| Method of evaluation: Completion by taking an examination | | | |
| Continuous evaluation: | | | |
| Final evaluation: Final examination: exam (1st part - a test and 2nd part - an oral exam). | | | |
| The condition for completing the course is a successful completion of the exam, which will consist of two parts: - a written test during the term (1st part of the exam); - an oral exam consisting of answering to two questions, which are published on the Department website (2nd part of the exam). The written test (1st part of the exam) will represent 40 % of the course evaluation and the maximum number of points a student can obtain for it is 8. The written test will consist of 8 questions, with only one correct answer from the three options in each question. The oral exam (2nd part of the exam) will represent 60 % of the course evaluation and will consist of answering to two questions, which are published on the Department website. Maximum points a student can score for this part is 12. The final evaluation is the sum of the obtained points for the written test and the oral exam. Evaluation scale: A (20-19 points), B (18-17 points), C (16-15 points), D (14-13 points), E (12 points), FX less than 12 points. | | | |
| Finished: By exam. | | | |
| Learning outcomes: | | | |
| The student knows the systematics of a specified part of the Criminal Code, is able to describe, define and classify individual crimes, further determine the objective and subjective features of the facts of specific crimes, distinguish between fault and threat crimes. After completing this course, the student will be able to correctly interpret the relevant legal provisions of the Criminal Code (a specific part thereof) and explain the relationship between the general and specific part of the Criminal Code. The student is able to solve a practical case where they can apply the relevant provisions of the Criminal Code, assign the correct merits of the crime, analyse the facts, prepare factual and legal analysis of the case, use relevant case law to justify the legal classification of the act and formulate a solution of the case. The student will be able to present a legal opinion on the solution of the case with appropriate argumentation. | | | |
